1. Abba Father: For you have not received a spirit of slavery leading to fear again, but you have received a spirit of adoption as sons by which we cry out, “Abba! Father!” (Romans 8:15).
2. Adonai: Adonai is a Hebrew word that translates as “Lord” of “Lord Master” from its derivation “sovereignty.” In 1 Samuel 24:8, when David has the chance to take the life of the King of Israel, Saul, who is trying to kill him, and he chooses to spare Saul, he emerges from a cave he has been hiding and calls Saul, “My lord,” its root form in the Hebrew similar to Adonai. Psalm 8:1 \(ESV\) – “O LORD \(Yahweh\), our Lord \(Adonai\), how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens.”
3. Alpha and Omega: In the last book of the Bible, Jesus reveals himself as “the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End” \(Revelation 22:13\).

Please note that the explanations provided are concise, and the Bible references are just a starting point for further exploration. Many of these names are used in various contexts throughout the Bible, and deeper study can provide additional insights into the nature and character of God.
